

Coomera Town Centre is planned as a major 21st century residential and business hub. It will feature 100,000 sqm of retail and commercial office buildings and residential accommodation, including medium rise apartment towers providing residence with views from Stradbroke Island to Surfers Paradise.