

B2B Capital assisted the client to obtain funds for Development Approval, which includes costs for architects, engineers, town planners and the Development Approval process. The future development will consist of 96 residential units and approximately 10 retail shops.